25X1 Municipal District of Trinidad (pop. 49,200)

1. This municipal district, located on the south coast of Las Villas Province, is rich and prosperous, and its assets include the port of Casilda; the Trinidad central; an electric power plant; an ice factory; the Eva cigar and cigarette factory; ten tobacco factories; twelve factories producing tiles, bricks, dishes, and ceramics; four sawmills; many dairies; and several small shoe-factories. This district also has a large coffee growing district; many sugar, tobacco, and vegetable farms; and large cattle-raising areas.
2. At present 189 persons from this municipal district are affiliated with the Partido Socialista Popular (PSP, Cuban Communist Party). This is a drop of about 400 from 1948, when there were 600 affiliates.
